The Saga Continues

"Once upon a time..." Isn't that the way all fairy tales start. School certainly is not a fairy tale but there is always a happy ending when you get through - Graduation.

School always goes on year after year. There may be different faces, different books, different teachers, different trends but school is a learning place, so the saga continues.

LOOK OF LOVE - Spending an intimate moment off the dance floor, Seniors Boris Matakovich and Chris Japkowski pose for a picture.

READY GUYS? - Getting ready to head out for lunch Seniors Jim Pierce, Pam Castle, Linda Psuik, and Sue Ann Laramie meet at the lockers.

All squires begin somewhere. Broderick finishes his daily chores in his old boring routine.

Like Broderick we all begin somewhere. We all begin as freshman and progress. Our classroom routine may be boring but we learn something from our experience. Our story begins here.

Rain fails to bring defeat

Winning the homecoming game against Chicago Prosser was a task in itself, due to the rain. But even though the weather was rough, many Governor fans still attended the victorious game. Senior Jim Pierce commented, "I wanted to go not only because of the game, and the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, but because it was my senior year, and it will be something I will never forget! It was great!" The Governors won with a score of 35 to Chicago Prosser's 7.

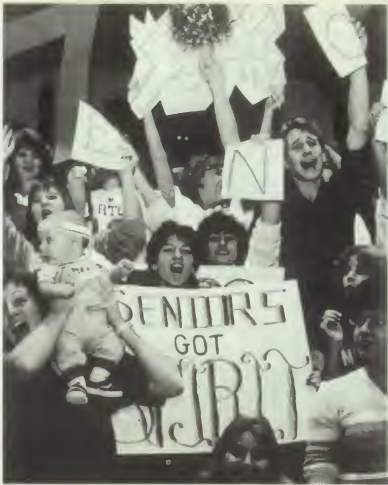

RAIN CAN'T KEEP THEM FROM SMILING - While attempting to keep dry, Principal Steve Stavros and senior Troy Stavros still find it easy to express the joy of a homecoming victory.

RAIN AGAIN? - Morton's football fans obviously remembered last year's weather and came equipped for another downpour.

LET'S GET SERIOUS - Even though the game is going well, players and coaches must pay close attention to every move the other team makes.

BREAKING THROUGH - Senior Rich Salinas breaks through a portrait of himself, made by the cheerleaders, at the Homecoming assembly.
WHO'S GOT THE SPIRIT? - Seniors show their spirit at the homecoming assembly by showing off the signs that they have made.

SPIRIT CENTRAL - The senior bulletin board gave the seniors a chance to declare their superiority.

This year's first actual production by the Top Hat theatre was "The Curious Savage", directed by Donn Edwards.

During the course of the year, the theatre group usually performs about two plays or so but due to scheduling difficulty this year's first play had to be cancelled.

The first was a childrens play entitled "Woodland Christmas".

The crew of The Curious Savage consisted of: Director, Donn Edwards; Settings, Edwards; Lighting, Joe Ecsi and Andy Sojka; Properties, Damon Widelski and Gene Ray; Set Construction, Mr. Edwards sixth hour Drama class; Sound Control, Craig Williams; Refreshments, Ann Stombaugh; Publicity/Tickets, Dean Shanahan, Jim Smith, Steven Dills, and Andy Zawadski; Costumes, Stanley Elgas.

During the course of the year the Top Hat Theatre group also performed at the annual young authors conference and sold fundraisers with the help of Mr. Edwards' English classes.

The Curious Savage was a three act play that was performed on February 20 and 21.

The play is about a greedy family who wants to put their Mother away in a home so that they may take her ten million dollars.

During the course of the play the Mother, Ethel, sends each of her children on a wild goose chase to find the money.

Mrs. Paddy finds where the money is, but when she returns to retrieve it, it is missing.

Miss Wilhelmina has taken and burned part of the money to show to Ethel's children so they would think the money is gone.

In the end, Miss Wilhelmina turns the bonds over to Ethel.

CHECKING IT OUT - Junior Rick Cantrell looks for an open receiver in a game against Hammond High.

Hard Work Pays Off

The 1986 football team had a good, but challenging season this year. Even though they only had five experienced seniors on the team this year, they finished the season with six wins and three losses.

The practices were pushed harder this year, but, the practices are what developed their positive attitudes.

Senior Kevin Enright commented, "The season was "The season was enjoyable and rewarding. The team worked very hard for a winning season."

enjoyable and rewarding. The team worked very hard for a winning. We accomplished this goal even though we lost a lot of seniors the year before."

The team put a lot of hard work into this season. It was not easy. There was a lot of pressure, sweat, and bruises. However, the season ended with some individual honors and many great memories.

PULLIN' 'EM DOWN - Our J.V. team tackles an opponent and prevents them from making a touchdown.

WAITING PATIENTLY - Patriotic fans wait patiently for their team to take them to victory.

DURING HALFTIME - Janet Szydowski leads parents down the field on parents night.

BREAKING THROUGH - Sophomore Rich Montes breaks through Munster defensive line.

GIVING IT THEIR ALL - Morton offense attempts a run play against Gavit's defense.

Tennis Wins!

For the first time since 1968 Morton won the Boy's Conference Tennis Championship this year. The tennis team was very strong. They had five returning lettermen and four of them were seniors. This seemed to be the base of their success in conference.

According to Coach Jerry Woodward they were strongest at number one singles and number one doubles. The team went into the finals leading with 16 points followed by Hammond High and Bishop Noll with 14 points.

Mr. Woodward feels that next year they will have a very inexperienced team. They graduated 5 seniors three of them were three year lettermen. Mr. Woodward quoted, "Young players will have to work hard over the summer. It will be a rebuild year."

The players who contributed the most towards the team were Jim Taillon (captain), Dave Lopez (Mr. Hustle), Jerry Czaja and Rob Edinger (most valuable), and Steve Lopez (most improved).

They ended their season with a conference record of 6-0 and an overall record of 10-4. They clinched their conference on October 6, defeating Gavit by a score of 5-0.

MORTON STUDENTS THROUGH THE HOOPS

The 1986-87 Boys Varsity Basketball team finished the season with a record of one win and eighteen losses. The team's most valuable player (Mark Brandner) was hurt in a BB gun accident. The team lost some games by less than five points. But the team is planning on a more victorious season next year. This year's captains were Nick Flesher and Kevin Enright.

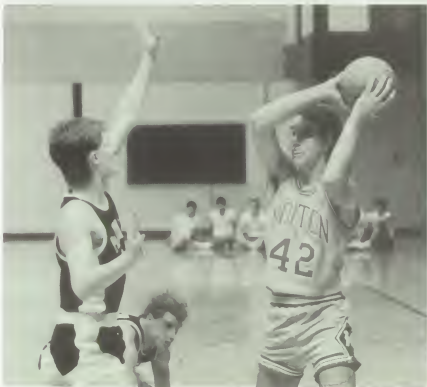

"The boys were a pleasure to coach because they never quit trying, and that's all a coach can ask for."

Coach Marcinek stated, "The categories that bumped us from having a better win and loss record, were shooting percentages and multiple turnovers. Although we didn't win many games, the boys were a pleasure to coach because they never quit trying, and that's all a coach can ask for."

1986 Baseball With The Govs

This year's Varsity Boy's Baseball Team had a fair season. Morton's first game of the year was lost to state ranked Munster High School with a score 7-4. The Govs season record was 13 wins and 17 losses. Their conference record was seven wins and seven losses.

This year's All-Conference players were

"I was pleased with my individual performance and I think that I contributed to the team. One man is not the team though."

Brian Ferguson and Don Bednar.

When Don Ward was asked how he felt his individual performance was this season, he replied, "I was pleased with my individual performance and I think that I contributed to the team. One man is not the team though. I thought the team played well together this season and I am looking forward to our team having a fairly good season next year."

This year's Junior Varsity Baseball Team, although they did not play as many games as the Varsity team, did manage to come out ahead. They won their first game against E.C.W. and suffered their first lost against Bishop Noll. The J.V. team's season record was seven wins and five losses.

Slide Into Girls' Softball

The softball team began their season on Tuesday, April 8 against Whiting.

The team's only three returning players were Sue Machuca, Dawn Hartzell, and Lynn Shearer. These three players, according to Coach Mary Lou Ziel are the ones who pulled the team into and through conference.

The Lady Gavs softball team season conference record was 9-6. Coach Ziel stated that it was clearly a learning and teaching year. Coach Ziel quoted, "I'm pleased with

Swing the Racket with Girls' Tennis

Morton's Girls' Tennis team has an even season this year. Their season record was seven losses and seven wins.

Their season started off with a win against Gavit but was immediately followed by a loss against Crown Point. Their second win was also against Gavit.

"I feel my individual performance was good. I tried to give all I could to the team and the game itself."

In the Sectionals, they played against E.C.R., E.C.W., and Clark. The only loss they suffered here was against Clark. The Girls' Tennis team placed third in the Conference.

Jackie Rocky, when commenting on her performance, said, "I feel my individual performance was good. I tried to give all I could to the team and the game itself. All in all, I think everyone tried their best. I have been playing for five years and plan to continue throughout the rest of my high school years. I hope we do really well next season."

Go the Distance with Boys' Track

This season the Boys' Track team had an extremely disappointing season. The team had eight meets, and won two.

At the Highland Invitational, Morton placed eighth out of eight teams. There were also eight teams at the Calumet Relays and there, too, the Gov's placed eighth.

"I was tired and disappointed of coaching losing teams."

In the Lake Shore Conference, Morton placed fifth out of seven teams.

Regional Conference qualifiers were Bill Tatum for the high jump and Tom Balczo for the long jump.

When asked his feelings on the Boys' Track team's season, Coach Archer replied that he had retired from coaching the team. When asked why, he replied, "I was tired and disappointed of coaching losing teams."

Against the wind With Girls' Track

Girls' Track for the 1986 season started off with a victory at the indoor ILSC. Their only loss was against Hammond High.

This year's sectional qualifiers were Wendy Nugent, Kelly Edinger, Laura Pfeiffer, Jennifer Tatum, and Kendra Figg.

"Overall, every girl did her individual best, and I feel that is a great accomplishment. Having more than two or three staying later to practice resulted in more making it to Sectionals." Wendy Nugent, senior.

When Sectional qualifier Wendy Nugent was asked her overall view on the team's performance this year, she replied, "The younger girls did excellant. In a few years they will be leaders of an upcoming team. Hopefully, more girls will be on that team."

Golf Team 'Drives' Forward

Golf, many may think of it as a relaxing game, but to this year's team consisting of six seniors, it was more than a relaxing game - it was a relaxing sport.

These guys spent hours practicing while trying to keep the ball out of the sand traps and water holes. In order to enjoy a game of golf, you need some golf clubs and a healthy supply of golf balls.

The team had a fair season with a record of 11 wins and eight losses. They played in the Rennselaer Invitational Tourney scoring 381, putting them in 11th place. In the ILSC Conference Tourney they received a score of 370 and a second place.

"The team members expected to play better than they did, and in that sense we were all disappointed." - Coach Kepler

After playing in the sectionals, with a score of 371, they ended their season with a 6th place finish. The All Conference players were Don Cox and Bill Edinger.

When Coach Kepler was asked his overall view of the 1986 Golf team as a whole, he replied, "The team members expected to play better than they did and in that sense we were all disappointed."

CONCENTRATING DEEPLY - Senior Jeff Turner makes contact with the ball.

Morton Wins First Title In 7 Years

The Morton Soccer team returned to its traditional winning ways in 1986. The kickmen compiled a record of 14 wins, 3 losses, and 1 tie. This was the largest amount of victories since 1978.

The team was lead by Senior co-captains Jeff Orange and Dave Semon. This year's starting line-up was comprised of four Seniors, five Juniors, one Sophomore, and one Freshman.

The kickmen started the season by beating Valparaiso and never looked back. Sophomore goalkeeper, Rick Cantrell, recorded seven shutouts during the year while the offense scored 37 goals in these games.

"We feel that the 1986 team was as good as it was because of its overall team unity and a talented offense and defense which sparked our state bound victories."

-Seniors Joe Lemos and Troy Stavros

After completing the season and winning the conference tournament, the Gavs went on to the annual Soccer Bowl. At the Soccer Bowl, the Gavs played the Lake Suburban Conference Champions, the Portage Indians. After winning the conference tournament, the Gavs went on to the annual Soccer Bowl. Team honors went to Joe Villarreal, best mental attitude; Rick Cantrell, most improved; and the defense team of Jeff Orange, Jerry Czaja, Alfred Guerra, Brian Hudkins, and Rick Cantrell, was voted most valuable.

When asked their views on this year's team receiving the most victories since 1978, Joe Lemos and Troy Stavros replied, "We feel that the 1986 team was as good as it was because of its overall team unity and a talented offense and defense which sparked our state bound victories."

Get On The Ball With The J.V. Teams

It has been a very disappointing season for this year's Junior Varsity Volleyball Team. They had an overall season of six wins and fourteen losses. Their record in conference was four wins and fourteen losses, and the last game they played, which was against Chesterton resulted in a lost.

As coach Debbie Lueken said, "It's taken longer than I expected for them to play together as a team. It's been an up and down battle."

The 1986-87 Morton Boy's Junior Varsity Basketball Team had an outcome of three wins and seventeen losses. The team consisted of three Juniors, eight Sophomores, and one Freshman. They had a bad start with the first seven games as losses and then a win.

There were more than twelve players at the beginning of the season however, a couple moved and others just dropped out. Next year there is expected to be twenty or so players trying out for the team.

Around The Court With Girls' Basketball

The 1986-87 Girls J.V. Basketball team worked hard and discovered what dedication is all about. Although their record was only 2-11 it certainly wasn't any indication of the improvement and progress that took place on this years team. Sherry Darnell was the only returning player from last years team. Stacey Harris led the team in 142 rebounds and 75 points. Coach Debbie Lueken says it's been a pleasure coaching this years team and to look for the J.V. Basketball team to be more experienced and more competitive next year.

The girls worked hard and improved throughout the season.

The 1985-86 Freshmen Girls Basketball team consists of fifteen dedicated players. Coach Debbie Lueken says, "The girls worked hard and improved throughout the season." The 1986-87 Freshmen Boys' Basketball team finished their season with a record of nine wins and twenty-four losses. Their league record was four wins and six losses. No matter what happened at each game, Coach Volbrecht said, "I believe that each player in his own mind felt he was giving it his best effort." The two players that scored the most points during the season was Ron Gasior who played in 19 games, with a 9.4 average, scoring 179 points. Also Robert Stricklin who played in 14 games and made 108 points, has a 7.5 average. Coach Volbrecht thinks that Colin Salapski improved the most during the season. Also Coach Volbrecht is looking forward to their next bas-

The 1986-87 Freshmen Football team played seven games this season. Their season record was one win, one forfeit, and five losses. The team started off well with the forfeit with Horace Mann and the win against Clark. Robert Perez said, "Our season seemed to get off to a real good start especially with the forfeit and the win against Clark. I don't understand what happened, but after Gavit's game things just kept going down hill." Their team did have a lucky season because there were only minor injuries, no major injuries.

Hard work

The printing press was a major landmark in the history of mankind. The Publications program is still advancing. Communications have become more sophisticated, such as our switch to computers and more modernized presses and things, yet people still continue to have the same basic need to communicate with others. Publications try to fill that need, in both newspaper and yearbook. Both groups try to print what they feel is important and interesting to you. The yearbook staff tries to fill you in on all school subjects and happenings to let you remember that particular year. The newspaper tries to tell you things you did not know and wanted to.

The reason the newspaper does not come out as often as it used to is because they are now working with a smaller staff. However, it does have its good points. They now have more time to work on their pages and they can improve their articles and features. The Yearbook also has a small staff, but they worked as fast as possible because they do not want the 'Top Hat' yearbook to come out in the following fall. So, no matter how small the yearbook staff is, they try to make the book as good as it can possibly be in that amount of time.

Continues On . . .

Both the yearbook and the newspaper are advancing their work more and more every year. Even though the newspaper is only four pages long, it still has many good qualities. The "Mortonite" staff tries to compile as much information into those four pages as possible. Each year they try to change something they didn't like the year before. Even though it may only be a small thing it seems that every year the "Mortonite" seems to get a little bit better. The "Top Hat" staff also tries to change the yearbook every year so that you don't have to read the same things year after year. They also try to change the books' layout every year so that it looks a little different each year.

Both staffs have tried their hardest and worked to their fullest potential to serve you with a newspaper, The "Mortonite", once a month and with a yearbook once a year to give you the greatest possible memories of that past year. So, as you can see, with the advancing of the communications our newspaper and yearbook are advancing too.

The Singing Continues . . .

CONCENTRATION: Juniors, Sheila Mooney and Angie McGlaughlin concentrate on getting the tempo right.

The Vocal Section is made up of Girl's Choir, Concert Choir, and Ensemble. The Ensemble is also known as the Vocal Ambassadors. Throughout the year all three groups have given many performances. They gave a Christmas concert as they do every year and the band also participated.

The Vocal Ambassadors (ENSEMBLE) performed at various places through out the year at people's requests. They do not charge a fee, But people usually give them ten or twenty dollars as a donation for their services. The Vocal Ambassadors (ENSEMBLE) is like an honorary group for the vocal department. In order to be in it you must try out the year before when they hold the auditions. TRYOUTS consist of a dance routine and singing.

The Vocal Section has improve over the years. They keep their costumes up to date as they do their music and routines. It seems as the time goes on, the music changes and so does the routines and the way people dress. And as all that changes, our choir changes with it. There is usually a good turnout for choir every year. Many people have alot of fun in choirs and their are many people who feel that if you have a good singing voice then you should join.

The Band Plays On . . .

This years band participated much more than in the previous years. They performed during the home football games and during the home basketball games. They even had their own section put aside in the gym so they could play through-out the whole-entire game. They also were active in a few parades this year. They were in the Homecoming Parade, the Little Red School House Parade, and others. Many more students are participating this year also. The three drum majors, Lori Harney, Linda Schmidt, and Wendy VanDyke and others that wanted to improve their playing skills all went to camp over the summer. They had a fundraiser in which they sold cheese and sausages and they also sold oranges and grapefruits.

Another big fundraiser for them was "tag day" members of the band stood on busy intersections asking for donations to the band. If they donated money they received a tag letting other people know that they donated money to the Morton High School Marching Band.

As you can see, as the years go on, our band seems to be getting better and better. Their instruments are improved as the years pass and as the different types of music pass through, those change too. So, as the music industry is progressing, so is our marching band here at Morton Senior High School.

Helping Out Others

Operation Snowball had their second annual Snowball here at Morton. It was held March 19th to the 22nd. The cost was $65.00 per person. It was open to all teenagers of Hesseville and surrounding areas and to adults. They also had an Operation Snowflake for the grade schools of the area. It was held from April 24th to the 25th. They also sponsored a Snowball dance on the tenth of June. It was a get together for all the Morton students and all the participants of Operation Snowball from other schools. The dance was a big part of the fundraising for next year's Operation Snowball.

The Chess Club meets twice a week in Mr. Bolinger's room. During the meetings they pair up and play chess. They trade off their pairs so that everyone has a chance to play everyone. Anyone is eligible to join. If you want to practice or improve your skills this club is a good idea. They had their own tournament within our own school which was mostly members.

They started too late this past year to be in any major tournaments, but next year they hope to participate in a statewide tournament, and many others also.

Pursuing Their Abilities

The Drama Club consists of people who like to act, or who want to pursue a career in acting. Some of them have very good acting abilities. Others are learning to be that good. Their first play of the year, "The Curious Savage", was a comedy about an elderly lady whose children wanted to put her in an old folks home, but she didn't belong there. It turned out okay. There wasn't that many participants though this year. There was enough people for the parts, but there weren't that many people who tried out for the parts. They do want more people to try out, and participate. If you are skillful in acting or just want to learn, join the Drama Club.

Another part of the Drama section is the Thespians. The Thespians is an honorary group for the drama students. To get into the Thespians, you must be exceptionally good in acting and have an "A" or "B" grade point average. You also must have been in Drama class for a certain amount of time. This year there are only three people in the Thespians.

The Drama/Thespians Department is in need of more students willing to try out their ability in acting. The sponsor for it is Mr. Edwards.

Junior, Angie Moore, went to the play, "Curious Savage" on February 20, 1987. Her comment on the play was, "The play was very interesting and entertaining. I could tell that all of the performers practiced very hard and did a very fine job. I laughed through the whole play."

Anxiety

The cheerleading squads represent our school by doing various things. They try to boost our spirit by cheering at our football and basketball games. The Varsity and Junior Varsity were picked at the end of last year and they practiced all summer and participated in various camps. They also had a few fundraisers before school started and during the school year. Freshman cheerleaders were picked this year. They were picked later than they usually are. The cheerleaders were picked from about twenty girls. They have kept up with the varsity and junior varsity squads by joining in on the fundraisers and by raising the school spirit. The varsity squad usually has a large crowd to cheer for, even at away games, so they have a large crowd yelling with them but the junior varsity and the freshman don't have many people at their games so they have to cheer extra loud to keep up the teams spirit and to try to get the spectators who are there to cheer too.

This year the varsity squad had male cheerleaders from the beginning of the basketball season and the crowd really seemed to enjoy it. They really knew how to boost the schools spirit by their crazy stunts and cheers. All of the male cheerleaders were from the senior class.

Mounts

The Pom squad this year has many new members; only a few returned from last year. The pon-poms selected their squad last year and practiced very hard over the summer at the school. This year they have a new sponsor. Ms. Engle took over the place of the former sponsors, Mrs. Tuck and Mr. Matusiak. Even though the cheerleaders and the poms have the same sponsor both groups still have their own individualism. They performed in many parades this past year. They also had fund raising booths at some fairs over the summer.

Boosting Spirit

The Student Association is a very active group. The Association put together the Culture Fest which was held on the first weekend in September. The fest was held in Morton's parking lot and the Howard Branch Library's parking lot. The fest consisted of many arts and crafts booths and also many games set up as fund raisers for certain groups. There was also a big selection of foods from various nationalities. There was also entertainment from many different groups and many different nationalities.

They also sponsored the annual Inaugural. The theme this year was "Fantasies". The cafeteria was decorated like a castle and the mood was set. The '86 Inaugural was a smash and everyone had a fun time.

The Booster Club is also a very active club. They devote their time to boosting the school's spirit. They make spirit posters and hang them up all over the halls to boost the spirit for the coming events. The Booster Club also sponsored their annual "Carnation Sale", on Valentines Day. You can send a carnation to a friend or loved one for a dollar. Each color has a meaning: red is for love, pink is for passion, white is for desire, and blue is for friendship. They were distributed to students in their third hour classes. They also sponsored a few dances and things.

Both the Student Association and the Booster Club are very active clubs with members who care about the school and want to help boost its spirit.

Honors Lead On

Quill and Scroll is an International Honorary Society for High School Journalist. If one is a junior or senior, has a 'B' average, has taken journalism, and has served on either the yearbook (Top Hat), or newspaper (Mortonite) staff, he or she is eligible to be inducted. The inductees are honored at a special banquet organized by the sponsor Mrs. Gillard and by the returning members from the last year. The banquet consists of dinner, they induct new members and they hand out special awards to certain members of the organization. All the members of the "Top Hat" and "Mortonite" staff are invited to the banquet but, only those who meet the special requirements are inducted. However, some times they can induct a sophomore but when they do that, the sophomore does not participate until he or she is a junior.

QUILL AND SCROLL: ROW ONE: Kim Garcia, Pam Rakoczy, Mindy Powers. ROW TWO: Amy Vernengo, Sue Ann Laramie, Erika Madison. ROW THREE: Bill Keutzer, Mike Patterson, Tabitha Dixon, Mrs. Gillard (SPONSOR).

The National Honor Society is a very small group this year. There are only six members and it reflects on the basic decline in student involvement and leadership. Mr. Zelenke, sponsor, likes to think of it as 'The Few, The Proud, The Morton Honor Society.' The six that were selected this year were selected from about fourteen possible candidates. One of the major problems that kept most people off was their involvement in other activities. Most people had the grades to make it but their involvement in extra-curricular activities were poor. There aren't enough that make good grades and are in three or four extra-curricular activities. Some people feel that if they are in more activities than it takes more time away from their homework time. They feel that they would not be able to pull such good grades if they had to spend their time on something other than doing their homework. But, then on the other hand there are six people in this school who proved that it can be done.

Building On Experience

The Foreign Language Club's purpose is to promote and encourage curiosity and learning towards the Foreign Languages. The foreign languages taught here at Morton are German, Spanish, and French.

This past year they went to the museum of Science and Industry. They attended the Omni Max theater and they ate at a special restaurant, set up especially to offer the foods of different countries. According to the Vice President, Kelly Troksa, the buffet was quite classy and the food was pretty good. The sponsor, Mr. Bolinger wants to set up a possible summer travel exchange for those who want it.

The Home Economics Club's purpose is to learn more than the basic subjects that you learn in school. They do and make things for the community when they are needed. They sometimes donate their own dishes to places that need them. They also have had bake sales as a fund raiser.

They had a pretty big turnout this year which is good. Many people are interested in learning how to improve their cooking and baking skills.

They also have had speakers come to inform the members of things they should know. They show them how to prepare different dishes and they also have the members help them sometimes. A few members commented that they really enjoyed the club and that they had fun and learned a lot of things.

Helping Their Future

Speech and Debate involves work outside of the classroom either in groups or individually. Each year the Speech and Debate teams schedule events which require travel. Depending upon the team's strengths, they may travel as often as twenty times or more each year. Speech and Debate is offered to all students. It is preferable to have had English 3 but it isn't required. To get on the team one has to have a recommendation by another instructor and Mr. Safstrom's approval. The decision is based either on the work of the previous semester or upon the entire high school record. An agreement to earn National Forensic League member the student must earn twenty-five competitive speaking points and be in the upper two thirds of his class. Some persons may consider competing in tournaments to earn N.F.L. membership as extra work. Actually, the tournament affords opportunities for improvement and success. ICE/DECA stands for Interdisciplinary Cooperative Education and Distributive Education Clubs of America. It is a program which was brought to Morton a few years ago by Mr. Speelmon. In this program students are taught responsibilities. While students work and go to school, they receive grades from their various jobs. The student's boss determines their grades. ICE/DECA may benefit students in going to college and keeping their part time jobs.

SKI CLUB - ROW ONE: Andy Zawadski ROW TWO: Kim Hensley, Mark Baker, Toni Sancya. ROW THREE: Marin Sima, Heidi Dodson, Eddie Pomplun. ATTENTION!! - The students gave all their attention to John Reed and really listen to his talk about SADD.

SADD stands for Students Against Drunk Driving. SADD had an assembly this past year about drunk driving. John Reed talked about his time in prison for killing a one-year old girl while driving under the influence. It really hit some of the students at MHS and hopefully, it will keep them from driving under the influence.

The Ski Club this year was more active than in previous years. They did go skiing more than once. They also had a couple fund raisers, one was a dance, and one was a sale in which they sold little pom pon animals. The members of this club seem really enthused about going skiing more often. "At first I didn't think we'd be going because of the weather situation, but I'm glad it did snow because we had a great time!" stated President Toni Sancya. Let's hope more people will get involved again next year.

COURAGE!! - John Reed shows a picture of the little girl that he killed while driving drunk. at a presentation given by SADD.

The Science of Taking Pictures

The Science Club, sponsored by Mrs. Turk, involved students who take science classes and want to find out more about the careers in that field.

They met twice a month, every other Tuesday. The officers were, Gina Atkinson, President, Brandon Cruz, Vice-President, David Lopez, Treasurer, and Sue Ann Laramie, Secretary.

During the year they mainly focused on sponsoring the twelve member MHS Science Olympiad Team to the 1987 Indiana State Science Olympiad on March 21, 1987. The team placed fifth in overall competition.

At the end of the year they also toured Purdue University's science program.

The Photo Club is sponsored by Herr Meister and met every other Tuesday. Often the members go to the clubs dark room any day after school or during their spare time during the day. Herr Meister enjoyed the Photo Club and was always willing to take new members at any time.

They not only learned how to take pictures, but also how to work the camera properly, develop the film, and how to print the pictures.

"I enjoyed learning something new", comments Junior Debbie Brown. "Using the camera is something I'll be able to use later on in life", she added.

TIMMERETTES-Row 1: Judy Crouch, Lori Harney, Debbie Brown, Heidi Dodson Row 2: Barb Fowl, Diana Turner, Missy Rau, Blanca Quiroga, Diane Peters.

Shannon Settle, Connie Kinder Row 3: Lori Brown, Jeanine Moreno, Kim Harney, Donna Richards, Trina Harrell, Jeanine Patacky.

The Mat Maids and the Timmerettes both are a big help to the swimmers and the wrestlers.

The Mat Maids keep the score for the wrestlers at away matches. At the home matches they collect the money at the door, keep score and announce the matches. The girls really tried to help out the wrestlers and Mr. Kepler as much as possible. There are a lot of people who sign up for Mat Maids but there are only a few girls who really stick it out and go to as many meets as possible.

The Timmerettes help the swimmers at home meets by keeping the time for the races and being the announcers. The girls each have their own stop watches, and they are each appointed a lane. They keep time for each swimmer at that lane.

The swimmers also have a tradition of throwing the Timmerettes into the pool if they win the meet!!

Sophomore Dawn Blankman and Junior Tammy McCallister fulfill their roles as mat maids by keeping score for the wrestlers at a home meet.

Weighing Their Ability

The weightlifting club consists of those people who lift weights after school. They try their abilities to see how much weight they can lift. They try to improve themselves and be the best they can. They try to build up their muscles and body and give themselves more strength than they had before. Each one of them gives the other support in what they do and in what they try to do. There were many more participants in the weightlifting program this past year than in the previous years. The days they are allowed to go downstairs and workout were Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Each guy tries to reach his goal of becoming an "IRON MAN". When you reach that point you receive a T-shirt and are considered an "IRON MAN". They hope many more people will get involved in this as the years go on. It is not just something to join, it is something that is good for you and can help you to improve yourself.

UGHS Junior Bobby Schallenkamp tries his ability as he lifts weights after school in the boys weightlifting room downstairs.

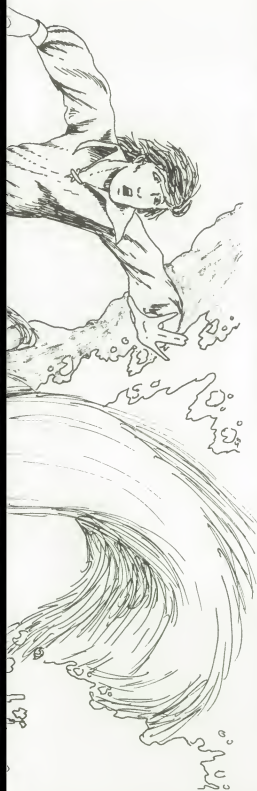

CONCENTRATION! Junior Brett Parker concentrates as he attempts to lift weights.

Broderick's efforts cause him to fall into the water. Many things may not be easy to accomplish in school but after graduating all efforts are worth the work.

Academics . . .

English Shows the Way

Morton's English Department started off by holding their first practice SAT on October 15, 1986. This practice test was designed to improve the test-making skills of our college-bound students. Morton's English Department also offers many fine clubs, activities, and classes that have been designed to improve students communication skills. The English Department encourages students to be a part of the Speech and Debate program or to get involved with the production of the Top Hat yearbook or the Mortonite newspaper. Some students may even wish to display their unique creativity in plays, poetry, and story writing. English is a requirement and is taken to improve one's grammar, spelling, reading, and also to receive a background in literature. Most students start off by refreshing their English skills and later wishing to take speech and literature classes. Some students wishing to further their career in English may take such classes as Advanced Composition, Developmental Reading, and World Literature. The English Department offers many ways for a student to express his or her talents in the field of English.

READING-Senior Dave Hlista reads a book which is just one of the many requirements in order to pass any class.

TIME TO STUDY-Senior Tony Mendoza takes time to study attentively.

WORKING-Freshman Rachel Rakos works hard to improve her grades.

EXCHANGING ANSWERS-Mrs. Gillard's first hour English class exchanges answers during discussion.

Studying Government and the Past

In the Social Studies classes the students focus on studying the past, present, and the different forms of Government.

Geography class is where students learn how to read maps and learn of land formations.

World Civilization is where students learn of the worlds past history. However, in U.S. History, the students focus on the past events of the United States.

The seniors of our school learn about the many types of governments and how they work in Government class.

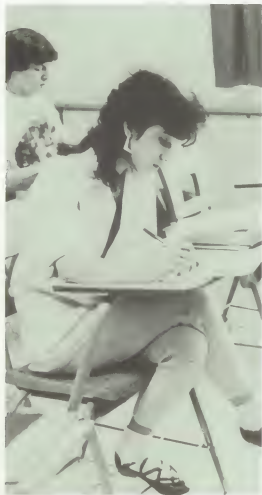

There are other Social Studies classes that students may take. These are Social Studies electives. These classes are Economics, Current Problems, Sociology, and Psychology.

These particular classes are good for students who plan to major in these specific areas. For example, a student who plans to become a teacher may find a Psychology class or even a Sociology class very interesting.

The Social Studies electives are offered to only the upper-classmen. However, every student must take World Civilization, Government, and U.S. History.

TAKING THE DAY OFF - Junior Marc Kessler tries to make Mr. Woodward believe that he is reading his U.S. History assignment. However, Marc is having a little trouble staying awake.

BRAIN STORMING - Junior Jackie Zaragoza takes the time to look over a test in U.S. History.

THE MOMENT AFTER - Junior Doug Guzek flips History test. However, at the moment, an A does not look possible.

Communicating Far and Wide

SPECIAL ATTENTION - Herr Meister tries to explain a German sentence to sophomore Andy Bennett. However, Andy is having a little trouble with a certain part of the sentence.

STUDY TIME - Senior Carrie Griffin listens to Mr. Bolinger while he gives a lecture during French class. Well, we do allow a little daydreaming every once in awhile.

For those students who are college bound, a language is recommended. However, any student who is looking for a challenge should take a shot at learning a language.

Here at Morton we offer three different languages. These languages are French, Spanish, and German.

French, which is taught by Mr. Bolinger, is a hard language to learn. The first year students are drilled with nouns, verbs and lots of vocabulary. However, the advanced students begin to put the pieces together and try to speak the romantic language. They even get the chance to test their abilities with some French recipes.

Spanish, which is taught by both Mrs. Burr and Mrs. Sersic, is a language that takes determination. While the beginning classes are working on the basics, the advanced classes work on speaking Spanish all hour.

German, which is taught by Herr Meister, likes to use the outside world as an educator. The German classes went to German Town and over Easter vacation some German students went to Germany, Austria, and Switzerland. The classes also went to see a German performance that was performed by the Stratton Mountain Boys.

All three languages are equally difficult but rewarding.

TIME OUT - Some German students take a rest on a corner in German Town.

Science Abilities Show

Science is a very interesting field to get into you can learn so many wonderful, exciting, and interesting things.

The Science Department has gone on a few trips this year. They went to Lincoln Park Zoo, and to Wolf Park in Battleground, Indiana where they studied wolves, and met each wolf individually.

There are other science classes available here at Morton for requirement needs and just for learning. To name a few: Biology 1-2, Biology 3-4, Chemistry, Zoology, Botany, and Physiology.

Senior Mindy Powers quoted, "If you are planning to go into a Science or medical related field, Physiology is a very good course to take in high school, and I would recommend it highly."

Science is a complicated subject but if you are willing and have the time, take a few of these classes and have fun while learning.

THINKING HARD-Sophomore Kara Wilson thinks hard while making up a test in Biology 2.

SHOULD A go to B or B go to A??-Junior Tricia Torrez tries to figure out whether or not her answers are right on her exam in Animal Behavior, which is one of many Science courses offered here at Morton.

CHECKING OVER-Sophomore Jennell Paris checks over her Biology test before turning it in.

WASTING TIME-Senior Rosita Gutierrez wastes time looking at a magazine in Animal Behavior.

LOOKING ON-Junior Debbie Cook looks on while taking an important test in Animal Behavior during 7th hour.

TURNING BACK-Freshmen Angela Robinson turns back for her notes she swore she took the day before in Health and Safety.

WOLF WOLF!-Pictured here is Ohtsu a nine year old male wolf born in April of '77. You can see him at Wolf Park, he is the Omega wolf.

Students Show Their Creativity

Morton's Industrial Arts Department offers many different classes for one wishing to endure a career in this area. These courses are good for students going into high technical jobs or even for those who are not. A few of the classes offered are woods, metals, power mechanics, drafting and welding. In woods, one will learn how to use several tools correctly. In drafting, the student learns how to design and make drafts of a house. Welding is a skill taught in the power mechanics class. In the Industrial Arts area students also learn how to fix engines and work with electrical equipment. The Industrial Arts classes are good for preparing students for such jobs as auto mechanics, drafting and electrical engineering.

PUTTING IT BACK TOGETHER - Senior Shannon Doughman, Junior Chris Ferris, and Sophomore John Dukes are shown putting the engine back together in Power Mechanics.

WELDING - One of the more popular classes in the Industrial Arts area is welding.

LET'S BUILD A HOUSE - Senior Mark Schaffer and Junior Rob Johnson are shown leveling off one of their projects which consist of building with their wood abilities.

CONCENTRATION - Senior Tony Hudec takes his time and concentrates on welding this piece of metal.

The Fine Arts Of Cooking

Home Economics is a program that has been set up for students who wish to be a part of future homemaking. Classes consist of: foods, clothing, child development, and Independent Living. These Home Economics classes teach students anything from proper methods of cleaning the oven to proper child care. In the clothing class, students are taught how to use the sewing machine properly and how to make repairs and adjustments. In the Child Development course students are taught the different stages children go through and how to cope with it. Independent Living will teach the students how to manage once they are out on their own. They will learn about the many different needs in life and learn to live without the things they don't need. How to manage and budget your money is also one of the many things taught in the Independent Living class. Home Economics is a class which can be helpful if taken. These classes are not required but can be taken as electives.

Individualism Stands Out

Morton's Fine Arts department is made up of Band, Concert Choir, Ensemble, and many other different types of Art classes. These classes are designed for students who wish to display their various talents. Morton's band performs at basketball and football games. Girls choir, Concert choir, and Ensemble perform various different concerts throughout the year. In the Art classes, students design many different projects, some of the classes even paint some of the murals throughout the school. Morton encourages students to be a part of the Fine Arts department, students will learn many different skills which may be helpful in their future years at M.H.S. or even after they are out of high school. Some students may wish to take them for fun and others may be wishing to pursue a college career. Students may learn a lot of helpful hints for future careers. These classes are not required in order to graduate but are usually taken as electives for fun.

BAND - Members of Morton's Marching band show that their work can also be fun and games and not all performances.

FLUTE PRACTICE - Sophomores Roberta Andrzejewski, Teresa Polito, and Kim Burke practice for their performance.

PLAYING THE CLARINET - Sophomore Jennifer Maddox practices for perfection at the next performance.

Students Want to Advance Careers

Many students wishing to advance their career training choose to attend half a day at the Hammond Area Career Center. The Area Career Center is located in the old Tech building. Classes are offered to all Hammond Area juniors and seniors. Transportation to and from the Career Center is provided by Hammond Area School buses. Students may choose to spend one, two, or even three hours a day there, depending upon their type of career training they pursue. A "C" average is required to attend the Career Center and spaces are limited. Students, therefore, must fill out an application and be accepted to go by the head counselor. Students may receive two or three credits for the time they spend at the center, again depending upon their choice of career training. A class offered is Data Processing where the student will be trained on different equipment, do work for companies to further his career training, and will also learn the fundamentals of the computer. In Fast Foods class a student will learn many chores such as washing dishes and repairing toasters. Rebuilding small engines is taught in an industrial arts class. The Hammond Area Career Center can be a very helpful place to attend. In each class one learns many valuable and helpful career skills.

METALS - Working with the welding equipment is just one of the many things at the Career Center.

PREVENTING INJURIES - To prevent injuries when working with the machines students dress carefully and avoid wearing hazardous clothing.

Physical Education Will Change All

HIT THAT BALL!-Freshman Melanie Krapac improves her volleyball skills by hitting the ball.

Physical Education is a required class to be taken by all of the incoming freshman. Some may wish to take the course right as a freshman or others may wish to take it their Sophomore, Junior, or Senior year. Physical Education is a two semester class and is worth one half of a credit per semester totalling one full credit per year. Physical Education includes sports such as: basketball, baseball, volleyball, football, soccer, tennis, and badminton.

A physical education student is also required to pass swimming which is included in the regular physical education course, if a student does not pass swimming then he/she is required to take the whole physical education course over the next year. After completing the course of physical education, a student can continue in the P.E., field by going into Advanced P.E., or Aerobics. The Aerobics class was very successful last year so the course was continued this year. The class is taught by Ms. Sherry Williams.

OFF THE FLOOR!-Freshman Monica Scott jumps off the floor to get the ball.

Business Students Discover Careers

This years Business Department offered many courses for students wishing to pursue in a Business career or for those who just wish to take the classes for the fun of their high school years. Some of the classes offered consist of: Keyboarding, Typing 1-Typing 2, General Business, Accounting, and Shorthand. In Keyboarding, a student learns the numbers and letters positioned on the keyboard of the typewriter and are also taught the basics of the keyboard. In Typing 1-2 the student is taught how to type several different types of secretarial letters, and office jobs are also taught to the student. In Shorthand, the student is taught on how to take dictation quickly and effectively, shorthand is a quick way to take a dictation. Accounting and General Business are just a few of the other classes taught in the business department.

Mathematicians Work Toward Goal

Morton's Math Department offers many varieties of math classes for students to choose from. The classes vary from general to the more advanced. Students are required to take two years of math to meet graduation requirements. Some students may start out in general courses and end up in more advanced. College bound students are required to take classes such as Algebra 1-2, Geometry 1-2, and Trigonometry. Students wishing to pursue careers in math may choose to take Computer Math. Student who are college-bound students can find Morton's Math Department very helpful in their future lives.

HELPING OUT - Juniors Andy Sojka and Tim Opinker wheel one of the chalkboards down the hall for use in a different math class.

WORKING HARD - Junior George Vasic and Sophomore Ray Liskey attempt to do Geometry in the hall.

WITH WORRIED LOOKS - Mrs. Craig passes out papers to her math class who are not too excited.

As the long journey comes to an end and our hero faces the dark, sinister castle, Broderick knows he has come a long way, yet he has still further to travel in order to accomplish his goal-to become a gallant knight by rescuing the princess whom he loves from the forces of evil.

Like Broderick we all must set goals for ourselves and reach out and achieve them. Each school day is a battle and each passing grade is an obstacle we have overcome. The diploma we receive is our victory. Now let's take a look at the heart of the school.

People . . .

Senior Year-What does it mean?

All of your life you look forward to being a Senior in high school; well, our time has come. We're SENIORS!!! During the course of our Senior year, many happenings occur and we develop many memories. Along with these happenings and memories there is also a certain feeling that comes with being a Senior - a feeling of seniority.

This year the seniors proved that they can handle their feeling of seniority without abusing it, by sticking together and building a float for homecoming, putting together a bulletin board, and just by being a class. We had a hard act to follow with last year's class being so close, but we have done a pretty good job. Our class also had a rough beginning our freshman year. We had to get everything together our sophomore year and hope for the best. Well, we've done it!

But being a senior is more than just being the oldest in the school. It means a lot more to a person like Kelly Daniels a senior here at Morton. She stated, "The best way to explain it (being a senior) is, it is my last year. Make it all work, grades, friendships, and goals. These are what I plan to make work." Many seniors felt the same way as Kelly did. We had to get everything together. Because of it being our last year of high school, we had to think of the future, whether we planned to continue our education or get a job or join the armed forces. There were a lot of decisions to make. Senior Lisa Hunt told us her feelings about her last year of high school, "It scares me to think about high school being over and going out into the real world, having to leave good friends and teachers. The best part of high school is the people, and saying goodbye to them isn't something I look forward to. But I'll always have the memories, which will always be a part of me."

There is one more thing that comes with the title Senior, it is Senioritis. I asked senior Gina Atkinson what were her feelings of Senioritis and she told me, "Senioritis is a condition characterized by boredom, frustration, and apathy caused by the anticipation of the coming of graduation and rush to get accepted into the outside world. Senioritis can only be cured by one thing - COMMENCEMENT -!!!!"

At commencement everyone was so excited to be graduating but also everyone was sad because we will probably never see most of these people again. After you leave the auditorium all of your feelings of being a senior die. You are no longer a senior, you are a graduate!!!

I would like to congratulate the class of '87 and wish them the best of luck in the future!!!!!!!

Seniors Shine During Homecoming '86!

During Homecoming this year the seniors really shined! They showed not only class spirit, but also school spirit. They were really motivated. They wanted their last homecoming to be their best and I think that that was all accomplished.

Some of the many festivities of homecoming were: The annual parade in which each class entered a float, (pictured above are seniors Bill Keutzer, and Julie Junkins showing off their float). Seniors tied with the juniors for first place. Then there were the numerous spirit days for which a great number of the seniors dressed up. One of the favorites was Hawaiian day. The decorating of the bulletin board was another one of the competitions and being the only class to decorate one, it wasn't hard to win.

The final competition (which was only between seniors) was the crowning of the 1986-87 Homecoming Queen-Marcela Guerrero.

It was a great homecoming that will always be remembered.

Continuing Fun Times Year After Year

The Juniors had a busy but fun time in 1986-87 in preparing for the Junior-Senior Prom, which was held on April 24, at Wicker Park. Some Juniors that went said that it was really nice inside and worth their money.

Prom is sponsored every year by the Junior class.

In order to help boost the class of '88's funds, the class sold plain and peanut M&M's.

One of the highlights in 1986-87 was homecoming, in which the Juniors tied for first with the Seniors in the float competition.

Another highlight was the Powder Puff game which was held on October 24, 1986. The score was Seniors 24, Juniors 14.

The Juniors Sponsors are Mr. Safstrom, and Mr. Kaczymarczyk. The council consists of Ann Stombaugh, Dottie Domsic, Diana Turner, Traci Kerr, Karen Sargent, Christine Capistran, Roxann Cieslak, and Sue Semon.

CHOWIN' DOWN - Junior Kim Garcia shown here chowing out on one of the many foods that were available at the Culture Festival held here in Mortons parking lot the second week in September.

Planning For A Bright Future

The class of '89 got off to a good start by selling M&M's, balloons, and cookies.

President Kathy Stevens quoted, "I liked selling for all of our fundraisers."

The Sophomore sponsors are Mrs. Turk, and Mr. Kocal. The council consists of President; Kathy Stevens, Vice President; Patty Egan, Secretary; Kelly Edinger, and Treasurer; Barb Liesenfelt.

The Sophomore class is planning Prom for May 6, 1988, to be held at Wicker Park. Stevens also said, "I think with a lot of hard work and participation by the class, this Prom will be the best ever!"

Sophomore Sandy Haywood quoted, "I think the Prom which will be held in '88 will be great and successful and I am looking forward to it."

With all that's been said, it seems like the Sophomore class is looking forward to a very successful Prom. GOOD LUCK!

CHEESE!!! Sophomores have fun while participating in the Homecoming Parade which was held on September 19, 1986 before the football game. Some of the Sophomores pictured are Patti Revere, Jane Trimble, Danielle Acheson.

Starting From The Bottom Once Again

"The class of '90 are a great group of kids," quoted Ms. Osmulski. The freshman class came into Morton unaware of how classes went, how long classes were, how to act in front of older kids, and how to join clubs, and organizations.

The class has had several fund raisers, some included two candy gram sales, one in October, and one in December for Christmas. A bake sale in October. A poster sale. And a taffy apple sale during a Freshman football game.

The Freshman sponsor is Ms. Osmulski. The council consists of President: Julie Flagg, Co-President: Mark Baker and Sandy Jansky, Secretary: Chris Kaminsky, and Treasurer: Erika Luttmann

Ms. Osmulski also quoted that she loved working with the class, they were all out going and looked forward to planning their Junior-Senior Prom in the near future.

Concentration - Freshman Chris Flesher tries to concentrate while taking a test in Spanish I, which is an elective students can take.

Here We Are . . . Again!

Many of the teachers at Morton Senior High have been teaching for a long time. Mr. Edwards, (including five years in another school), and Mr. Kolar have been teaching for 25 years. Dr. Stockdale has been teaching for 20 years.

Mr. Hodson has spent three years in another school and 17 years at MHS. Mr. Woodward and Mr. Hunt completed their 20th year at MHS this year. Both Ms. Hicks and Mr. Snow have been teaching for 19 years each and all of those have been at Morton.

Mr. Zelenke spent 18 years teaching here and two years in Hawaii. Mrs. Burr, Mr. Kucer, and Mr. Spry will be starting their 18th year in the fall.

Ms. Luttringer, and Mr. Hruskovich have been here for 16 years. Mrs. Mann has been teaching for 20 years, 12 of which have been spent at MHS.

Mr. Bacus, Mr. Bobowsky, and Mrs. Gillard have been teaching for 14 years, but seven of Mr. Bobowsky's years were spent at Gavit.

Although Mrs. Collins has been at MHS only nine years, she also taught at another school for 20 years. Ms. Williams has been teaching at MHS for only seven years, she taught at Hammond High before and has taught a total of 18 years.

Mr. Fischer has been in the building for only four years, but he's not new to teaching either. He taught in other schools for 26 years. Mr. Volbrecht has been in the Hammond schools for quite sometime. He's back in the building again this year after being at Scott for four years.

Administrators have moved around as much as some of the teaching staff. Although Mr. Stavros has been here for four years, he has been in education for 25 years. Mr. Mataja has been the most constant administrator in this building and he's had 29 years in education. 18 were spent in Hammond, and 11 years were spent in Whiting schools.

The most recent addition to the administration Ms. Kline, who was added this year. However, she's no newcomer to education either. She taught in LaPorte school for nine years, before taking Mr. Tanke's place.

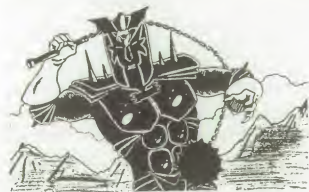

A new counselor was added, Dr. James Novosel (replacing Ms. Lundahl who retired), but he's not new to the system either. Mrs. Jennings-Sarten was added to the business department, but she came over from Clark. Mrs. Draskovich was added to the math department, but she came from Hammond High. Ms. Lueken was added to the physical education department, and she came over from Scott.

In the special education department seven teachers and two aids were added: Ms. Osmulski, Ms. Foster, Mr. Sever, Mrs. Mikler, Mrs. Byers-Hurdish, Mrs. Martinez, Mrs. Bogey, Ms. Matus, and Ms. Hatch.

Genita Cofield was added as a speech therapist, and Lucy Perz replaced Mildred Reese as school nurse.

STICKING AROUND - In the fall Mr. Donn Edwards will be starting his 26th year of teaching at Morton.

JOINING THE CLUB - Teaching special education, Miss Ann Osmulski has completed her first year of teaching.

Teachers and Their Cliques

Not many people wonder what teachers do during lunch. Most people figure they just go out someplace or sit and talk in the teachers' lounge. When lunchtime comes for them, they usually do the same thing each day.

Nobody even thought of the fact that teachers have their own cliques. Why not? They are people too, and like others, teachers like certain kinds of company.

Some teachers like Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Rotenberg, and Dr. Stockdale like to stay in their rooms, maybe grade papers, plan for the day, or to even be alone. Other teachers go out to lunch.

Still, teachers enjoy eating in the teachers' lounge, and of course, at their special tables.

Who would have it to be odd if Mrs. Craig went to sit by Mr. DePeugh? Mr. De Peugh along with Mr. Huber, Mr. Archer, Mr. Woodward, Mr. Nelson, Mr. Hodson, Mr. Marcinek, and Mr. Hruskovich, sit at the well-known "Macho Table."

Mrs. Craig prefers to sit with Mrs. Burr, Mrs. Mituka, Mrs. Mann, and Mrs. Sersic.

Another large group is the English and Science department which included Mrs. Turk, Mrs. Gillard, Mr. Bacus, Mr. Zelenke, Mr. Bolinger, Ms. Luttringer, Mr. Edwards,

Mr. Weiss, and sometimes others like Mr. Sarang and Mrs. Sullivan.

The secretaries and the Special Education teachers sit with their own groups.

Of course, this isn't every teacher. Still, there are others who have hall or cafeteria supervision. Mr. Penzato, Mr. Kolar, Mr. Mayerik, Mr. Stavros, Ms. Engle, Mrs. Kline, and a few more have a fifth hour lunch. Other teachers go off on their own or are with students who need to make up a test or serve a detention.

Teachers' cliques don't just stay at school. Mr. and Mrs. Weiss and Mr. and Mrs. Bacus spend time together often. They, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Gillard and Mr. and Mrs. Bobowsky, go to movies and plays, visit each other, shop together, and dine out together. And, again- Why not? They are people too.

In the special education department seven teachers and two aids were added: Ms. Osmulski, Ms. Foster, Mr. Sever, Mrs. Mikler, Mrs. Byers Hurdish, Mrs. Martinez, Mrs. Bogey, Ms. Matus, and Ms. Hatch.

Genita Cofield was added as a speech therapist, and Lucy Perz replaced Mildred Reese as school Nurse.

Once More A New Administrator

Throughout the years Morton has had many administrators. This year Ms. Teri Kline replaced John Tanke as vice principal, who is now the principal at Scott Middle School. Tanke was here for two years. Before him, John Molnar was an administrator, and before him, Joseph Gartner.

Steve Stravros has been principal for four years. He replaced Tim Brown who was here for two years after Winston Becker.

Ms. Kline completed her first year at Morton as vice principal.

Kline has been teaching for nine years, and this is her first vice principal position.

She taught for two years at Centerville Indiana. She also taught for seven years with LaPorte Community Schools. She taught ninth through twelfth grade Spanish and kindergarten through twelfth grade physical education.

Kline went to LaPorte High School and graduated in 1972. In high school she was in the Future Educators Club and the Foreign Language Club. Her senior year she recieved the Outstanding Foreign Language Student Award.

She then attended St. Francis College in Fort Wayne, Indiana, and graduated in 1976. After that she received her masters degree at Indiana University in South Bend, Indiana. She graduated from there in 1984. In college she participated in intramural sports. They consisted of flag football, volleyball, and basketball. Kline was also a cheerleader at Saint Francis for four years.

Thanks For The Memories.

It's been a great year. And if you've been banking at Gainer, you've helped make it a great year for all of us. So whether you choose to continue your education or join us in the workforce, Gainer wants to be part of your future. And we'll make some new memories together.

GAINER BANK
Gaining on the future.

Best Wishes To The Class of '87

At Peoples Federal we know how important higher education is to your future.

Deciding how to pay for that education can be a big decision. Peoples Federal has two loan programs available to students and parents who need assistance. Please feel free to contact a Peoples Federal branch office for more information regarding student loans or other aid.

1986-87 Good News Gives Causes

For centuries world events have shaped people's lives. Often, it is in looking at our past that we discover who we are. This year there was cause to celebrate ourselves.

This year was the 100 year anniversary of the Statue of Liberty. Much media programming featured stories of the immigrants who came to this country from Europe.

The Calumet region has long been known as a "melting pot" and the Hesville community continues to change as more people of different ethnic backgrounds move into it.

Locally, every first weekend of September is an ethnic celebration. The La-Care International Culture Fest took place again on Morton's parking lot and the surrounding area.

Another cause for celebration this year was Corazon Aquino's defeat of Ferdinand Marcos in the Phillipines. Her rise to the presidency seems not only a reason to celebrate for freedom of the people of her country but also seems to be a celebration for women. It is not everyday that a housewife becomes a president.

A couple of marriages also captured everyone's attention. The Kennedy's and the Windsor's still intrigue most people. Caroline Kennedy and "Randy Andy" got married, but not to each other, however.

Speaking of setting up housekeeping, mortgage rates dropped this year and made it easier to buy a home.

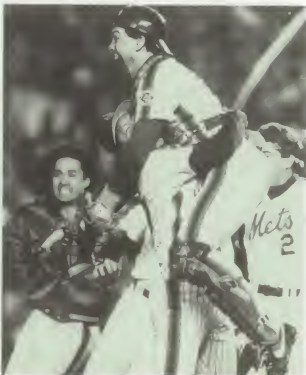

CELEBRATION - The city of New York gave the Statue of Liberty a big 1986 bash -- a Fourth of July festival of song, celebrities and fireworks honoring her first 100 years.

SWEET VICTORY - New York Mets Gary Carter is lifted in the air by relief pitcher Jesse Orosco following the Met 6-5 victory over the Boston Red Sox in the seventh game of the World Series.

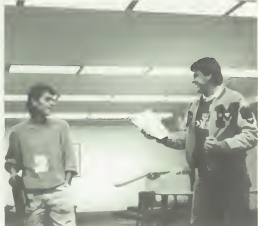

For Celebrations

Within the school, there is also cause for celebration. The Leadership Conference was held for the second year, and this time it was totally run by students, with faculty members in advisory capacity. Though not as well attended as last year's, it was received favorably by those who attended it.

The School Improvement Committee has had some problems with membership this year, but they are still meeting and are still dedicated to improving the school. They began work on the area of peer counseling, with the goal of trying to get students involved in areas best suited to their interests. They were also involved with the Leadership Conference.

The P.T.S.A. offered programs on topics such as college financial aid, substance abuse, at their monthly meetings. They also sponsored a Christmas dance, and tried to increase their exposure to students.

ABOVE: YOU CAN DO WHAT? - Seniors Joe Lemos and Boris Matonovic illustrate many uses of a can during a Leadership Conference skit.

BELOW: MOO, QUACK- Ms. Williams and junior Fran Fox locate others using animal sounds.

POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE - Britain's Prince Andrew, the queen's second son and fourth in line to the throne, married English commoner Sarah Ferguson in July.

AMERICAN ROYALTY - Caroline Kennedy, who captured America's heart romping through the White House, married Edwin Schlossberg, an N.Y. businessman and artist in July.

ANOTHER STAR - Miss Tennessee, Kellye Cash, the grandniece of country star Johnny Cash, was crowned Miss America 1987. She received the crown from outgoing Miss America Susan Akin.

Some News Is Always Bad News

It doesn't matter what century we live in; certain problems continue to plague the human race. There is the problem of drought and famine. There is the problem of death and disease. There is the problem of crime. Poverty and unemployment still exist. Abuse of others, and abuse of one's self are timeless.

Locally, the big newsmakers this year were crime and unemployment. According to the The Times, the USX Corp. work stoppage idled more than 6,000 workers in the Region and 16,000 others nationwide. It also broke the previous steel strike record for longevity. LTV filed for bankruptcy, and Inland Steel cut back seriously again on workers.

The stories surrounding Paula Cooper and co-defendants were frequently on the front page. At fifteen she murdered Ruth Pelke, an old Bible school teacher. Robbery was the motive. Later she bragged about the killing. She was also involved in a sex scandal while imprisoned which led to the dismissal of prison guards. She was sentenced to the death penalty.

"The death penalty was administered to William Vandiver in October. He was found guilty of murdering and dismembering a local Hessville residents. Vandiver was lethally injected, and had been requesting to die for what he had done. His accomplices are still in prison.

Nationally, the top story of 1986 was the Challenger explosion, which happened last January.

ON THE BRINK OF RUIN - In 1986 the worst drought in record destroyed many Southeastern crops.

FIGHTING BACK - U.S. A. F. and Navy jets attacked the Libyan Naval Academy as terrorism response.

CELEBRITY DEATHS - Among the celebrities who died in 1986 were singer Kate Smith who died June 17 of respiratory arrest at age 79; Benny Goodman, the King of Swing, died June 13, apparently of cardiac arrest; James Cagney, one of Hollywood's famous tough guys, died March 30 at age 86; and Ted Knight, best known for his "Ted Baxter" role on the "Mary Tyler Moore Show," died August 26 of cancer at age 62.

WARLORDS - President Ronald Reagan and Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev reached an impasse on Star Wars weaponry testing in Iceland summit.

PERINNIAL PROBLEM - They call it "crack" or "rock" and this refined, smokable form of cocaine may be the most addictive drug ever sold in the U.S.A.

DISASTER - Cows and 1700 people died burned from steam and choked by gas when a scalding gas bubble arose from Lake Nios in northwestern Cameroon.

This story has a happy ending as Broderick finally reaches his objective: the girl. This page of the yearbook is dedicated to the future: whether your life has a happy ending or not, we hope that in looking back at this book you will experience happy memories of the past. Here's to the future . . .

The 575 copies of this book were published by Walsworth Publishing Company, located in Marceline, Missouri. All copy is printed in 10 point century with headlines varying in sizes from 18 to 42 point. All captions are printed in 8 point Iylian bold italic. We would like to thank Mr. Bob Henning, our Walsworth representative. Jim Bis from Bodies' contributed a lot with his pictures for the book. Also we want to thank Kelly Daniels, April Fortenberry, for their time with the book.

This years 1986-87 Top Hat Staff would like to thank everyone who contributed to the yearbook. Without the patrons and advertisements we sold this year, we would not be able to finance this book.

During the year we had many complications from the beginning to the end. In the fall we didn't have many people on staff, and the 1985-86 staff had many graduates which left this year's staff, young and unexperienced.

We did get the hang of things, for a while, but three editors dropped the class second semester and that put an extra burden on all the other staff members. With help from the second semester journalism students and the volunteers that graciously volunteered their time and effort, the staff worked hard as a team and got the book completed.

Most of all we would like to thank our advisor, Mrs. Jan Gillard. No matter how much work she had she was always there for us. She was there when we needed that extra push, or that little bit of patience. She put a lot of her own time into the yearbook helping us out and we appreciated it very much. Most important we become close. We put all our efforts together and became a team. We learned how much we depend on each other, and how we always need others as The Saga Continues . . .

Thank You,
The Top Hat Staff

the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are under 15 years of age has increased from 1.1 billion to 1.5 billion, and the number of people aged 65 and over has increased from 0.2 billion to 0.5 billion (United Nations 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of the young and the old. The United Nations (1999) has identified the need to address the needs of the young and the old as one of the eight Millennium Development Goals. The United Nations (1999) has also identified the need to address the needs of the young and the old as one of the eight Millennium Development Goals.
